ONE LAW,
MANY LANGUAGES

The Superior Court of California, County of Butte, is seeking highly motivated and professional individuals to perform the duties of a certified Court Interpreter on an assigned and as needed basis. Work is performed in the courtroom and related facilities and encompasses a wide variety of language interpretation activities assisting parties to proceedings, including witnesses, defendants, attorneys, judges, other court personnel, and the public.

The position requires the ability to concentrate and deliver interpreting services in a busy and fast-paced environment. Court interpreting requires the ability to adjust to speakers with differing voices and accents at varying rates of speed. Interpreters come into contact with a wide variety of people from differing educational and economic backgrounds. Travel within the county is required. If cross assignments are accepted, travel between counties may be required.

Essential Functions:

- Interprets from and into English and the applicable non-English language using simultaneous and consecutive modes at court proceedings and for Court departments.
- Makes sight translations for the benefit of the Court of documents including, but not limited to, petitions, reports, waivers, felony disposition statement forms, and other documents.
- Interprets for judges, attorneys, Court staff, and others at the direction of the court.
- Notifies the Court of any issues or situations that may impede the interpreters' performance.
- Researches and understands functions of the court and terminology, which may include but not be limited to legal, technological, scientific, and/or medical terminology.
- Reviews the daily docket, receives daily calendar assignments from the Trial Court Interpreter Coordinator (or other) and accurately completes daily activity logs, or other documentation as required.
- Performs other language interpretation duties as assigned, such as providing general court information at an information counter to the non-English speaking public and processes documents related to interpretation.

Special Requirements and conditions of employment:

- Possession of a valid Certificate as a "Certified Court Interpreter" issued by the Judicial Council of California on behalf of the State of California, or registered as a Court Interpreter by the Judicial Council of California on behalf of the State of California.
- A valid Class "C" driver license, or the equivalent, or the ability to utilize an alternative method of transportation when needed to carry out job-related essential functions.
- Stamina to sit and/or stand and concentrate for extended periods: corrected hearing and vision to normal range.

Salary and Benefits:

- Salary Range: $286.80 - $304.25 per 8-hour day; $159.04 - $168.76 per 4 hour day.
- Holidays: One full day holiday pay, up to a maximum of 9 days/fiscal year for each 20 full workdays or 40 half workdays performed.

This is an on-call position hired pursuant to the Trial Court Interpreter Employment and Labor Relations Act \(SB 371\). For additional information please refer to the Region 3 CFI Agreements located here.

Butte Superior Court is an Equal Employment Opportunities Employer. Please contact Human Resources should you require special accommodation.
